

A VICTORIAN TEA with the magic of the Gypsy Palm Reader as you Step- back in time to the Victorian Era at the CHESTERFIELD HOTEL, Palm Beach, FL

What does your future hold? Join in as the Gypsy Wagons arrive and bring the secrets of the Gypsies in the fortunes they tell!

A trip back in time with some Victorian flair, Afternoon Tea and a chance to be entertained by your Victorian Hostess and a special visit from their Gypsy Palm reader. In those days, no one admitted they wanted about what the future held from them. So they invited the Gypsies to come to tea and loved to have them read their palms. The Gypsies would pull their wagons into the back of the mansions, “a Gypsy Madam” would come through the back door and then the fun began. A bit of Palm Reading, a chance to learn to learn about the art of tea, how tea leaf, the secret language of the fans or umbrellas. Guests enjoy a wonderful afternoon tea along with Tea Sandwiches, Savories and Sweets, as well as wonderful homemade scones with Devonshire Crème and Jam.

There are props for picture taking, table décor and some fun small gifts for each guests. Be a part of the romp with some interactive parts of the program, as some of our guests might find themselves involved in learning how the Victorian Ladies communicated without saying a word!

The scene is set at the charming boutique, Chesterfield Hotel in Palm Beach, so use your imagination, choose to become a Gypsy for the day or what about wearing your favorite Chapeau, long skirt and gloves to become a lady of the Victorian Era.
