

Join Befitting Just Your Style for a Nostalgic Tour of Art Deco's beginnings - MIAMI BEACH ART DECO DISTRICT and the BASS MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

[Day/Date]

Miami's Art Deco District is the first 20th century neighborhood recognized by the National Register of Historic Places with 800 structures of historical significance, mostly built between 1923 and 1943.

Meet our Private Step-On Guide to begin our introduction to famed Ocean Drive, with building designs copied from famous ocean liners of the past, which were docked in the Port of Miami... featuring pothole windows, curved rails and flags.

Along the route, keep a lookout for some of the show-stopping locations, all narrated by our private guide.

On Collins Avenue, it's time to tour the National Hotel, a restored two-story building where we will enjoy the sights and, of course, lunch.

This wonderful look at the past will come full-circle at the tour of Bass Museum of Contemporary Art, newly reopened in October, 2017, after extensive renovation.
