

To those who have spoken out ... and who continue to do so ...

“Women in “Herstory”

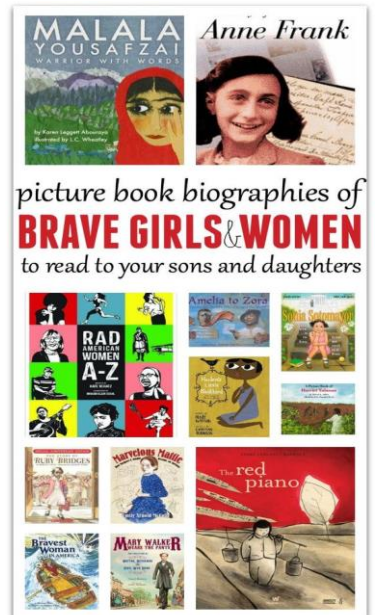

A special series to applaud women – celebrate!!

Chesterfield Hotel for Afternoon Tea

All women are a bit crazy, and can you blame us? We deal with kids that don't listen, husbands that don't hear, workplace inequality, and bodies that are “hormonal amusement parks.”

Through the ages, we were ... the power behind the throne ... the little woman who stayed at home, barefoot and pregnant ... women to be seen and not heard. Yet, we were inventors, problem solvers, talented, exciting, brilliant, creative and even today pointed out as ...

A Series of Presentations to Write Women back into History

PRESENTING THREE FAMOUS WOMEN IN EACH PROGRAM, women who made or changed “HERSTORY” and became the ones who ...

“colored outside the lines” ...

“walked to the beat of their own drummer” ...

and, no matter the circumstances, made the WORLD AND MEN SIT UP AND TAKE NOTICE!

In this presentation, “dressed for the occasion” are... “mother of Miami – Julia Tuttle, the IT girl – Clara Bow and of course- - Rosie the Riveter.

Through suffering, beatings, riots, death, and having their dreams and inventions stolen, they persevered. Each of the women represented, dressed for the time period she lived in represents, will interact with your audience. It's a wonderful moment when we understand ...
