Hollywood was the center of Glitz and Glamour! The Silver Screen reigned supreme! Remember the “real” stars, fabulous clothing, sensational furs, and show-stopping jewelry? It was all sparkle and shine, so let's pretend and get into the “look” for our 1940's-style get-together. Dressing up was so much fun ... a way to take our minds off the war for an hour or two. Goodbye, drab ... hello, color! The more outrageous, the more fun! Outstanding dress designers brought their creations to the silver screen, as well as to a population of women waiting to bust out and be noticed. Dress up, and join the interactive fun with us!
