

Join in for an exciting journey into the world of culture and history, great food and the heart and soul of a people...

The Welcome Mat is out to Miami ... and the city within a city surrounded by rhythms and passion unlike any other!

VIVA LITTLE HAVANA!

Your day starts as you depart at 8:30 AM to experience the rhythmic beat, the sights, sounds, heritage and history that is "Viva Little Havana!" Hispanic culture seeps into the heart of this little slice of Cuba that has come to Miami. Immerse yourself in a day of color, excitement and Cuban style that makes you want to know more and see more.

Our Historian and ambassador, along with his associate tour guides will put out the welcome mat and provide a front-row seat to this pulsating "moving" show on your walking tour of Little Havana's famed Calle Ocho. ..an experience like no other

Tour the surrounding neighborhood and from the bus see life unfold filled with stories, history and the many ethnic groups that at one time or another called this home. Be a part of the scene at every stop as our guides welcome you to Little Havana.

Speak and interact with the artists at the galleries; say hello to the mom and pop owners who peek through the open windows that will serve you "real" Cuban coffee; smell the aromas that waft from the restaurants; and watch as generations of cigar rollers let you in on this art of tobacco, stroll in Domino Park and the stories and challenges of a game of Dominos ... and what tour would be complete without a chance to bite into their famous Guava Pastry! In fact, there's time for some shopping, trying the authentic drink... a Mojito, treat and what a treat for dessert flan...delicious!. Get into the spirit of Cuban culture and this historical step back to this neighborhood's beginning and pulse of a people.

After this delightful exploration, lunch is served at a little Havana landmark as Cuban Chicken Paella is served for lunch with Sangria - cool and refreshing! The food is not "hot" or spicy, just simply delicious. Get ready to "kick up your heels," and watch a private dance performance with a glass of sangria to toast this lovely day.

Many highlights and surprise await and we've even found time for some shopping stops along the way. Your day is bursting it's seams and we promise you'll just love... VIVA LITTLE HAVANA! Depart for home at 3:00 PM
