CUBAOCHO MUSEUM & PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

In the heart of colorful Calle Ocho, Miami’s exciting SW 8th Street
Great food! Entertainment! Sexy Salsa Dancers! Pulsating Musical Rhythms!

Your Little Havana Dinner Party begins mid-afternoon as your coach departs ... arrive in Miami’s famed Calle Ocho about 4:30pm. There’s time to walk about - stores are open Tuesday and Friday evenings - and do a little shopping before gathering at CUBAOCHO MUSEUM & PERFORMING ARTS CENTER for a memorable evening of great food, drink and music. This unique destination is home to the multi-million-dollar Cuban art collection of owner Roberto Ramos who, along with his brother, escaped Cuba on a small boat with his first few canvases carefully wrapped in plastic. Since arriving on U.S. shores, he has built Cubaocho into a center for the arts with the largest rum collection in Florida! Look around ... it’s all for sale, the paintings, sculptures, even the decorative tables and chairs!

As the music surrounds you and swaying salsa dancers delight your eyes, dinner is served (menu at right).
