Prepare to Be Amazed!
Supernatural or Science??!

Come along as we tour this amazing, magical castle and sculpture garden lovingly built by just one man ... Edward Leedskalnin, a Latvian immigrant who went to Florida to cure his tuberculosis in 1919. From 1923, at age 36, to his death in 1951, he single-handedly and secretly carved over 1,100 tons of coral rock into one of the world's most mysterious accomplishments, using a process that still remains a secret! Coral Castle visitors in the 1940's were greeted enthusiastically by a man weighing a mere 100 pounds and standing just over 5 feet tall, who explained with great pride the significance of each piece. Since no one ever witnessed the sculptor's labor in building his beloved Coral Castle, some have said he had supernatural powers, but he would only say that he knew the secrets used to build the ancient pyramids, and if he could learn them, you could too!

Features of the Coral Castle Museum include a nine-ton gate that moves with just a touch of the finger ... a Polaris telescope ... and functioning rocking chairs ... all made entirely of stone!

What could have inspired Edward Leedskalnin to spend 28 years of his life to carve a Coral Castle from the ground up, using only home-made tools? Perhaps an homage to the young woman who broke his heart back in Latvia? Or to illustrate ancient sciences that seem to defy gravity? Or simply sheer, raw human determination? Coral Castle is an everlasting mystery to all who explore it!

A unique experience awaits at Robert Is Here fruit stand. Established in 1960 and featured on the Cooking Channel with Emeril Lagasse, NBC's "Today Show", "World News Tonight", and newspapers and magazines across the country ... "you ain't seen this kind of fruit stand before"! Banana and pineapple; carambola, or "star fruit"; we dare you to resist the wonderful aroma of fresh fruits and vegetables ... like Monstera Deliciosa, which looks like a giant green ear of corn but tastes like Mamey; Lychee; Atemoya; Papaya; and in the summer, Robert's pride and joy – MANGOES! Samples of homemade relishes, jams with preserves, and for those who really want to indulge, Key Lime Milkshakes to give up your diet for! You won't want to leave without taking a bit of tropical heaven with you!
